FOREWORD

“Nothing now is left but majestic memories”

LONGFELLOW

We shall always treasure these full and happy memories of our three years at MERCY—the fun, the friends, the trials and tribulations that seemed so important then. The problems, however minor, that we solved will prove beneficial in seeing through life's maze of difficulties.

While at MERCY we gained not only an education, but knowledge through experience which we shall need in solving our problems.

In our future this 1958 MERCILITE will illuminate and reflect the happiness that we know. In it are bound the memories of three full years.

We Gratefully Dedicate...

We would like to express our gratitude and bid a fond farewell to one who has given her whole being to the training and development of the Mercy nurse.

Her sweet smile, optimistic outlook on life and spiritual fortitude will long remain in the hearts of all who knew her. Her patience and kindness to the student will long be remembered.

To hold in memory, we, the class of 1958 dedicate this Mercilite to Sister Mary Gertrude.

IN RECONITION OF

SISTER MARY GERTRUDE
MISS VIOLA CAUBLE

For many years now, one person has devoted herself unselfishly to making our three year stay at Mercy as much like home as possible. Because of her, little extra privileges are obtained, dances or receptions are given a special, personal touch, and each girl is guided and protected with motherly instinct, understanding and love.

We, the seniors—past, present and future—wish to thank you, Miss Viola Cauble, for your devotion, loyalty, and love.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

In this year of 1958, we the Senior Class of Mercy School of Nursing being of sound body and sane mind (Thanks to Dr. Holbrook and Mundorf) bequeath the following articles in the manner named below.

ARTICLE I

To Sister Jerome, we leave our thanks for her capable guidance during the past year, and a bottle of GELUSIL for the ulcer we have caused.

ARTICLE II

To the faculty we leave our model conduct, undivided attention and clever remarks.

ARTICLE III

To Father Hillary, we leave our appreciation for his genuine sincerity and everlasting smile.

ARTICLE IV

To the Doctors who love us so, we leave nothing for we gave all we had.

ARTICLE V

To the head nurses and supervisors, we leave the narcotic keys, the many messy charts, and a chance to set up the oral medications.

ARTICLE VI

To the night supervisors, we leave the bathroom on second east so you may enjoy a cigarette once in a while.

ARTICLE VII

To the aides, we leave so you may get that long rest you so well deserve.

ARTICLE VIII

To the orderlies we leave our well worn copy of "What to do until the Orderly Arrives."

ARTICLE IX

To the housemothers we leave a bottle of NO DOZE pills so you may meet that twelve o'clock curfew.

ARTICLE X

To the Irene's we leave the dirty hopper rooms, dirty halls, and all the vim, vigor and vitality which you will need.

ARTICLE XI

To the rising Senior Class we leave our faded blue bands.

ARTICLE XII

To the rising Juniors we leave our unique ability of working only three to eleven and night duty.

ARTICLE XIII

Judy Allred leaves her thyroid gland to medical science.

Farrior Ashcraft leaves her ukelele to anyone who can make as much noise with it as she did.

Virginia Barbee leaves her undying love for first Saint Mary's to Pat Bechler.

Nancy Ballard leaves her many hours of night duty to the anxious Probies.

Rita Bowden leaves her feminine laugh to the timid soul . . . Norma Fletcher.

Sue Bowen leaves her giggles to anyone who can get away with them.

Peggy Buckley and Rosie Dunn leave their unequaled Enema giving ability to anyone who dares to take the challenge.

Ann Byrd leaves Belmont Abbey giving Sacred Heart girls a chance.

Bert Coberly leaves a trail of dust as she leaves for them thar Mountains of West Virginnie.

Vera Corbett leaves her soft spoken voice to Miss Annie.

Phyllis Covington leaves her popularity with the opposite sex to whoever can make as good use of it.

Lucille DeMarco leaves her "Yankee Brogue" to Shirley Bess.

Ann Douglas leaves the wilting tones of her well known soprano voice.

Harriet Elliot leaves her 20/20 vision to that eagle eye Bernice Diehl with the warning . . . "Beware of them bright lights."

Betty Farmer leaves taking her beloved "Gechie" to South Carolina.

Dee Flemming leaves her enema can and Senokot pills to an unfortunate who might need them.

Maureen Galligan leaves for more excitement.

Jackie Gibson leaves her five day diet to Liz Barnhill with the hope she will know when to stop.

Susan Hamby leaves the key to success hidden behind one of the loose bricks on the side of the nurses home.

Luanne Hattler leaves with all the copies of "Danny Boy."

Nancy Healey leaves her daintiness to Teresa Fernandez.

Evelyn Heath leaves her ability to make a short story long to Sue Gaddy.

Jerry Hilton leaves all her Winston butts to Julia Frick.

Glenda Ijames leaves her hand-me-down, two-way-stretch, thing-a-ma-bob to Nancy Canfield.

Priscilla Johnson leaves her seven to three duty to some lucky Junior.

Corrine Keen with a sigh of relief.

Nemo Lovelace leaves nothing, she was last seen on her way to Raleigh.

Carol Medlin leaves her intellect to the many needy Probies.

Valerie Neal leaves on a stretcher, the shock was too great.

Mary Lou Payne leaves the headaches of business manager and a BC to next year's editor.

Earlene Settlemyre leaves to see the world through a porthole.

Barbara Snuggs leaves as quietly as she spent her three years here.

Ruth Spencer leaves her tired, baggy eyes and late hours to Judy Croquette.

Gloris Terry . . . !&@fb?fi-lb&Z@flbfff& CON-FOUND IT!!!!

THINGS WE WILL MISS

Miss Cauble's good bacon, eggs, and coffee when we were sick.

Saturday night T.V. in the Rumpus room with Matt Dillon.

Sister Jerome's surprise assemblies.

Our kind and patient teachers.

The pangs of hunger during work.

The nights of call in the O.R.

The six o'clock bell.

The temptation to ring the fire alarm.

Miss Annie's "Visiting Hours are Over."

Going out the front door in Bermudas without being caught.

Feeling of excitement before graduation.

Day dreaming in Communicable Disease.

Virginia Barbee's interesting love affairs.

The underclassmen and their problems.

Grabbing a coke between classes.

Taking an overdose of NO DOSE pills while on night duty.

Irene banging the lid on the garbage can early each morning.

Each other . . . The Class of 1958.

JUST IMAGINE

Mercy with no lovers and no broken hearts.

Everyone making the honor roll.

Class with no Case Studys.

Cleaning our rooms every day.

Rosie Dunn with a build like Jane Mansfield.

Sister Vincent and Sister Evangelist in a race against time.

Farrior Ashcraft without her ukelele.

Gloris Terry NOT saying "confound it."

Three full years of seven to three.

Every week end off.

Bert Coberly without her "Saymen salve."

Davidson coming to our dances.

Ruth Spencer with a picture of Eddie Fisher tatooed on her back.

The cooks using a cook book.

Lucille DeMarco six feet tall.

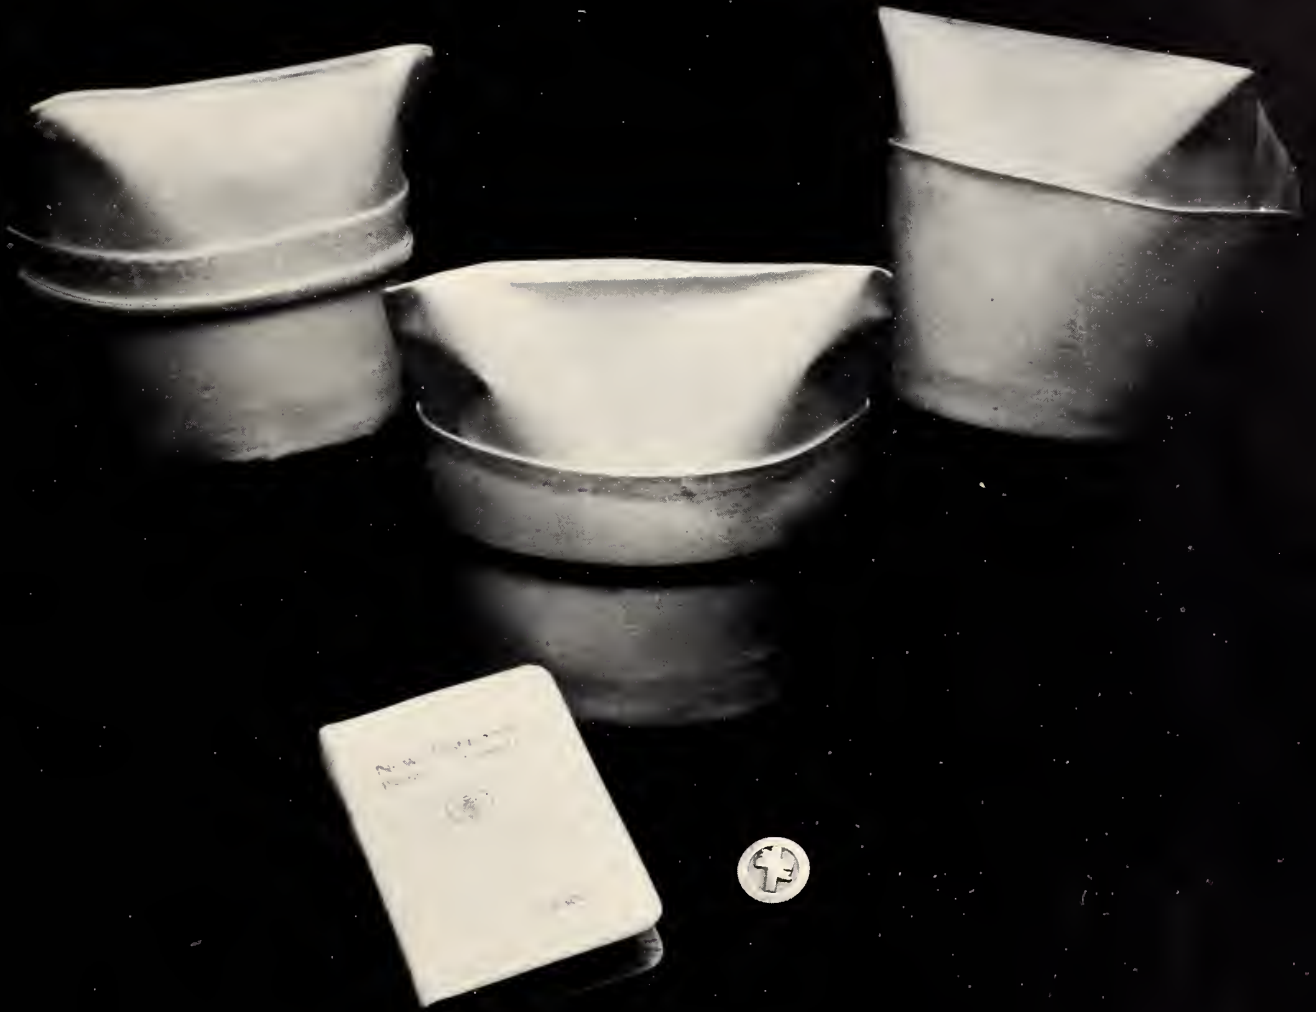

Betty Farmer without Charles Blanchard.

Maureen Galligan without a cigarette.

Pediatrics for only a month.

Second Main without Mrs. Galligher.

Mercy without us . . . The Class of 1958.

Sister Mary Bernadette

"Sing on, Sing on," seems to be the theme of the Freshman Glee Club.

Since the girls sang their first note of the scales, under the capable direction of Sister Mary Bernadette, they have serenaded many groups. This has proven that much enjoyment can be achieved from a group of girls gathered together making sweet music, both for themselves and for others. Congratulations on the success of this fine Glee Club.
